Comments Report

1.2) Other reason for taking course:

I was hoping to learn about the inner workings of computers.

needed some programming for work

1.4) Level of Effort Explanation:

I found that the more in depth we got in the course, the less interest I was having in the class.

Went above/beyond whenever possible.

My attendance was poor, I feel, which resulted in me having plenty of work to catch up with. My attempts to catch up were mediocre until the end.

1.6) Overall Rating Explanation:

There were a lot of lectures, but to finish the assignments, you would need to know more, than what the lectures would tell you.

Dad did an excellent job putting a practical spin on things.

learned a lot, taught well

Overall it was a pretty hard class, but learned a lot.

1.8) Likelihood Explanation:

If you want to major in CS, then take the class.

good vigorous intro to programming in C++

Very good basic programming

Hard for me to understand some of the work.

if needed for major/minor

1.10) Skills/understanding Explanation:

I came into the course knowing nothing about computer science, I had to learn something.

Learned a lot about writing good code for ~~students~~.

had 0 understanding before didn't know anything really, coming in

I know some C++ now!!!

2.2) Instructor Rating Explanation:

There were times it would seem the instructor was confused by our questions.

Enthusiastic and perceptible of difficulties. Encouraged ~~and~~ effort.

explained concepts well

2.4) Recommendation Explanation:

Good instructor, very helpful.

Soc abae.

very helpful!

great prof! always went out of her way to make herself available for after class help

2.5) Please provide any additional comments that you want to make about the course and instructor.

I dislike coding standards.

She's very friendly, open, + clear.
She made this class fun + non-threatening.
